

EWA What goes where?

glass	paper	cardboard	organic waste
glassbottles jam jars pickle jars canning jars empty medication bottles empty cosmetic bottles	newspapers magazines brochures catalogues books notebooks telephone books letters	boxes cement sacks egg cartons toilet-paper-rolls corrugated cardboard feed sacks paper grocery bags	fruit and vegetable scraps, food scraps spoilt foods egg shells coffee grounds and tea leaves (with filter) paper napkins houseplants cut flowers sawdust Important: no liquids of any Separate by clear                      and coloured glass! Empty and clean!	No cardboard of any                      kind please!	Anything empty and                      clean please!	Is picked up at your home (container only)

non-recyclable waste	plastics & composites plastic packaging material only!
cigarettes nappies vacuum cleaner bags light bulbs crystal synthetic cat litter toys rubber leather rubbish porcelain hygiene articles (e.g. toothbrushes, cot- ton swabs, etc.)	yogurt cups plastic cans blister packaging snack-food bags pasta bags plastic film plastic bags emptied spray cans	packing polystyrene composites (e.g. crisp boxes) coffee packages dry-soup packages milk cartons juice cartons frozen-food packages tetrapack cartons	aluminium tins tin-plate-tins aluminium foil aluminium tops and metal closures binding wire metal lids
Is picked up at your home (container only)	Please make sure that all plastic and composite containers are empty and clean! Plastic beverage bottles                      and cans are subject to a deposit. Please return them to the retailer.

Stand : 13.01.2025